September Success Story

Spiritual Care at the Orlando VAMC

The Orlando VAMC has been successful in providing the optimal level of spiritual support to Veterans and their families for several quarters. Read their Success Story to learn about how they care for spiritual needs.

From the CELC Implementation Center

All are welcome to join the conference calls for the Spiritual and Bereavement Support Pilots and for the many Special Interest Groups. Call times and more updates can be found here.

From the CELC PROMISE Center

The Q3FY2011 report will be released October 1st.

Please schedule a “hot seat” call with Dawn Smith to review your VISNs report from last quarter. To help us collect data more efficiently, please post the monthly death data to the secured shared drive by the 10th of each month.

From the CELC QuIRC

The QuIRC will be offering trainings on the critical elements of workload capture and the use of the Palliative Care Workload Module from August-September 2011. To learn about how to RSVP for these trainings, please click here.
